Veto Votes on Parts of Tax Package

By JIM ADAMS

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A party-line scramble in the House and a rider in the Senate put veto votes on part of President Nixon's economic package before both chambers of Congress today.

House Democrats pushed up the vote on veto of Nixon's proposal to delay a $1.3-billion federal pay raise after Rep. H.R. Gross, R-Iowa, served notice he wouldn't wait until Wednesday when they wanted it.

Before the Senate was an amendment by Sen. Charles McC. Mathias, R-Md., to, in effect, write the veto into the $21-billion military weapons procurement bill.

Mathias' rider was to a $300-million amendment by Sen. Gordon Allott to bring the $2.4-billion military pay raise already passed by Congress back up to the $2.7 billion once passed by both the House and Senate.

House Republican and Democratic leaders marshaled their forces over the weekend to be on the floor today with Democrats trying to muster their 254 members to pass the veto resolution over the 178 Republicans by sheer force of numbers.

The resolution would veto President Nixon's decision to delay until next July a scheduled January pay raise for 4.3 million federal employees.

The $1.3-billion saving is the biggest single item on the $5-billion spending-cut side of the President's economic package. The House is to vote on its own version of the inflation-fighting tax-credit portion of the President's package Wednesday.

Joining the fight, Nixon said in a statement from Key Biscayne Saturday his program would be "torpedoed" if Congress vetoed the federal-pay delay under what he called political pressure.

House Republican and Democratic leaders alike wanted the vote taken Wednesday for maximum time to marshal their forces for and against it.

But a flurry of telegrams went out over the weekend for the House members, especially those out of town, to be on the floor today, after Gross served notice he would not wait until Wednesday. Any member can call up the resolution at any time.

But Mathias' Senate amendment is intended to accomplish the same thing by writing into the $21-billion military procurement bill a provision that Nixon must start the federal pay raise in January.

The accompanying $300-million Allott amendment would restore moneyknocked out of offering House and Senate versions of a $2.7-billion military pay raise by House-Senate conferees in the draft bill passed by Congress last month.

Air Pollution in Arkansas Is Heavy

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Pollution Control Commission released a report Sunday that said from July 1969 to last July 1, 693,915 tons of air contaminants were released into the atmosphere in Arkansas.

The study was done after amendments to the Clean Air Act required an intergovernmental system for control of air pollution.

The Environmental Protection Agency has divided Arkansas into seven air regions and has given the state commission until next January to submit a plan to control air pollution. The plan, if approved, must be enacted by January 1975.

The commission says it will use Sunday's report to set up a plan in Arkansas.

The largest single contaminant listed was carbon monoxide. Cars contributed 70 per cent of the carbon monoxide; residential and commercial heating and incineration constituted 6 per cent; and larger sources, such as industry, contributed 24 per cent.

Medical Price Freeze Is Indicated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Elliot L. Richardson says the administration plans to control medical costs in the second phase of its economic program.

Richardson said Sunday the department has been working with the Cost of Living Council for a brake on hospital and doctors' costs after the wage-price freeze ends Nov. 13.

"Because of ... the very rapid rate these costs have been rising year after year, we do intend to include specific measures to deal with them," Richardson said.

His remarks were on the NBC radio-television program "Meet the Press."

Newsweek magazine published a poll Sunday that said 69 per cent of American families want wage and price controls continued after the freeze expires.

Newsweek said 55 per cent favored what it called "Nixonomics."

The magazine said the poll was conducted by the Gallup Organization by telephone of a cross-section of American voters.

In his television appearance, Richardson also said the Nixon administration may send a proposal to Congress supplementing the President's health-insurance bills to deal with costs and quality of medical services.

He said that since the administration has "proposed to mandate health insurance coverage for all families and all workers ... that we should also hold out assurances that cost and quality of medical care are going to be protected."

Ministers Have Plan to Rebuild World's Shattered Finances

By STERLING F. GREEN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 118-nation conference of finance ministers has produced a blueprint for rebuilding the shattered structure of world currency values.

When the governors of the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank adjourned their five-day annual meeting here Friday, they were a lot happier than when they came.

They had agreed to agree. They had broken the seemingly hopeless deadlock of the mid-September meeting in London of finance ministers from the non-Communist world's 10 richest nations.

The crisis is far from over. There is hope—only hope so far—of a solution by the end of the year. The 118 countries have adopted unanimously a "work agenda" for action this fall.

Even that solution will be a temporary one. It can buy time for the longer, harder task of reforming the whole international monetary system to provide a dependable framework for expanding world trade, investment and payments.

This may take a year, or two, or three. In effect, it means doing all over again what the embattled non-Communist nations did in wartime urgency at the Bretton Woods, N.H., conference of 1944.

Sunday Was Deadly on State Roads

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sunday was a deadly day on Arkansas' highways as multiple fatality accidents made the weekend highway fatality count zoom upward to 14.

Five persons were killed Sunday evening in Phillips County, three persons were killed Sunday morning near Brinkley and two others were killed near Osceola.

In that five fatality accident, State Police said the five were killed when two cars collided head-on on Arkansas 44 just south of Wabash (Phillips County).

Police said a car driven by A. B. Otey, 48, of Elaine crossed the center line and struck a car driven by Clyde Roy, 21, of Fort Wayne, Ind. Police said Roy's car burst into flames on impact.

Otey and Roy were killed. The other victims were Ora Lee Gardner, 24, Derrick Hart, 6 months, and Ike Hart, 22, all of Elaine.

Marriel Marshall, 19, of Lambrook and Patricia Hart, age unknown, of Elaine were injured.

The Associated Press weekend highway fatality count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

State Police identified the four persons killed on Arkansas 17 six miles north of Brinkley as Morris Stafford, 16, of Cotton Plant; Tim Banks, 15, and Russell Tackette, 15, both of Cotton Plant, and Freddy Flitts, age unknown.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The seven remaining Supreme Court justices returned solemnly to the bench today to begin the 1971-72 term without two illustrious colleagues, Hugo L. Black and John M. Harlan.

Black's death and the serious illness of Harlan cast gloom over the 11-minute session, which was devoted largely to a tribute to their careers by Chief Justice Warren E. Burger. Their high-backed leather chairs had been removed and the remaining justices were seated in a new order of seniority.

Black had sat at the right arm of Chief Justices since 1945. His place as the most senior member was taken by Justice William O. Douglas, now the only remaining appointee of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and himself a 32-year veteran of the court. At Burger's left sat Justice William J. Brennan Jr., who moved up two places with the departure of Black and Harlan. Rounding out the seven-man court were Justices Potter Stewart, Byron R. White, Thurgood Marshall and Harry A. Blackmun.

The two vacancies are delaying a vote on the constitutionality of the death penalty and other important questions.

Burger said Black's departure was a profound loss. He said "throughout his entire life he never wavered in his unbounded faith in the people and in the political processes of a free people under the American Constitution."

Black retired Sept. 17 and died Sept. 25. He had served as a justice for 34 years.

In tribute to Harlan, who retired Sept. 23 and is suffering from spinal cancer, Burger said his 16-year record as a justice attests "to his prolific and erudite contributions to the work of the court."

Throughout the week the justices will consider at private conferences hundreds of petitions and appeals and motions that have accumulated since last spring.

Rulings on many of these will be released to the public and the bar on Oct. 12, the day of the next public meeting.

The court last met in June with nine men, when it ruled newspapers could not be prevented from publishing the Pentagon papers, which traced the history of American involvement in Vietnam.

The court had planned to consider major cases between Oct. 12 and Oct. 20, including four appeals by death-row prisoners testing the constitutionality of capital punishment.

Because of the two vacancies, however, the cases were shifted Sept. 24 to the winter months of the nine-month term.

Other delayed disputes involve pollution of Lake Michigan, rules for questioning suspects and whether criminal convictions can be returned by less than unanimous juries.

VA Hospital at LR to Be Replaced

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., announced Sunday that the North Little Rock Veterans Hospital will be replaced in about five years.

In the meantime, McClellan said the Veterans Administration has allocated $347,000 for immediate improvements to the facility.

McClellan said Donald E. Johnson, national VA administrator, said the improvements would be completed in about six months.

The improvements will include air conditioning of all patient areas, additional electrical power resources, partitioning of bed areas and similar improvements.

The senator said the improvements at the facility are the result of an investigation he asked to be performed by VA officials.

Labor Party in Trouble in Britain

The official leadership under former Prime Minister Harold Wilson is seeking conference endorsement of its decision to oppose British entry on grounds that Prime Minister Edward Heath's Conservative government has negotiated a bad bargain.

Labor leaders argue that joining Europe will undermine British living standards. They

Rogers Tells U.S. Views on Major Issues

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers pleaded strongly with the United Nations today not to oust Nationalist China, saying "the path of expulsion is perilous."

Rogers also called for an accord to reopen the Suez Canal as a "major step toward peace" in the Mideast, and set forth a six-point negotiating agenda to achieve this.

In a wide-ranging annual policy speech to the 130-nation U.N. General Assembly, the secretary of State in addition: —Reported the Russians have agreed to discuss proposed U.S.-Soviet offensive missile curbs in greater detail when the strategic arms limitation talks—SALT—resume in Vienna next month.

—Rebuffed the Soviet proposal for a periodic world disarmament conference outside the United Nations, saying such "grandiose schemes ... tend to generate many words and few results."

—Called on East Germany to live up to the new big-power agreement on access to Berlin.

—Said final resolution of this Berlin issue, in turn, could lead toward an East-West conference on Europe and mutual force cut negotiations.

Rogers' strongest plea in his 5,000-word address was in behalf of Nationalist China, the long-time U.S. ally which now faces possible expulsion in the maneuvering over seating Peking. A U.S. move to prevent this is facing tough going, a showdown vote is due late this month.

Almost all nations, including the United States, want to bring Red China into the United Nations, he said. But it would be unfair to do this by ousting a government which represents the 14 million people on Taiwan, he added.

By coincidence, Rogers had an appointment later in the day with Israel's foreign minister at which he intended to press for an interim Suez settlement.

At least 21 persons were killed and more than 100 wounded in enemy shelling, terrorist incidents and antigovernment riots Sunday.

Nat'l Fire Prevention Week Observed

October 3 through 9 is National Fire Prevention Week and will be observed here. Fire Chief James Cobb said the Hope Fire Department answers 98 calls so far this year. Twenty five of these were false alarms, 73 were calls to car, trash, grass fires which did little damage because they were extinguished while they were small.

"Our thanks to the citizens of Hope for the fine cooperation which has been given the Hope Department in helping us to quickly discover fires and for services throughout the year," Mr. Cobb said.

Big Victory for Thieu in Vietnam by Margin Greater Than Figured

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu won re-election by a far greater margin than the 50 per cent "vote of confidence" he sought, South Vietnamese election officials announced today.

But even as the final vote tally was reported, opposition politicians charged that the election was rigged. An election official in Saigon said he was ordered to replace anti-Thieu ballots with votes for the president.

The national election center claimed Thieu—the only candidate—won 91.5 per cent of the votes cast, with 5.5 per cent of the votes against him. They were unable to account for the remaining three per cent of the votes cast.

"Now, for the moment, we can't say where they are," said government spokesman Vu Khanh. "Maybe later."

One election official said the discrepancy could be due in part to the fact that seven ballot boxes were stolen in Da Nang, the scene of bloody anti-Thieu street riots during the election.

He added that some voters might have thrown away both the Thieu ballot and the voting envelope after having their voting cards punched, possibly accounting for more of the "missing votes."

Before the election, Thieu told voters he would step down if he did not receive at least a 50 per cent of the vote. He said they could vote against him by mutilating or defacing their ballots or by putting an empty envelope into the ballot box.

Thieu's office issued a statement, read over national television and radio, that was described as "the president's first impressions" of Sunday's elections.

Thieu noted the official nationwide voter turnout exceeded 87 per cent of the more than 7 million registered voters, while the turnout in 1967—when there were 11 candidates—was 83 per cent.

"This proves that our people as a whole were aware of the election's decisive importance," he said. "And by taking part in large numbers they expressed their respect for the constitution and laws and fulfilled their citizens' right in a free and democratic way."

Thieu also congratulated "our soldiers and cadres for having maintained the utmost security on election day."

Cong to Start Drive to Resupply

WASHINGTON (AP) — The North Vietnamese may launch their dry-season resupply push along the Ho Chi Minh trail earlier than usual this year, U.S. military officials say.

Analysts say the North Vietnamese will try to gain a few extra weeks to help make up for the tonnage they were unable to get through to their troops in South Vietnam and Cambodia during the past dry season.

Pentagon specialists claim the North Vietnamese put less than 10,000 tons through the Ho Chi Minh trail system before the heavy rains came in May, compared with about 20,000 tons the year before.

They chalked this up to heavy U.S. interdiction bombing and the South Vietnamese army's ground operations against sections of the trail in southern Laos last winter.

In most years, the North Vietnamese supply drive is well under way by about the first of November. This year, officials said, they look for this to happen by mid-October.

U.S. reconnaissance detected heavy North Vietnamese road construction in the Laotian Panhandle earlier this year. For the second year in a row, they said, the North Vietnamese kept between 40,000 and 50,000 men in the Laotian Panhandle during the drier-than-usual rainy season to prepare for gearing up the truck shuttle of supplies when the weather clears.

U.S. officers reported new roads radiating out of key passes leading from North Vietnam into Laos, including a new route from the Ban Raving Pass about 15 miles north of the demilitarized zone.

Murder and Suicide in Hijacking

By F. T. MACFEELEY
Associated Press Writer

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A real estate salesman hauled his kicking, screaming wife aboard a private plane today at Nashville, Tenn., commandeered the craft with a .45 automatic pistol and then killed the woman, the pilot and himself when trapped at Jacksonville, police said.

The FBI said George Mallory Giffe Jr., 34, died en route to a Jacksonville hospital. Susan Giffe, his beautiful 25-year-old estranged wife, and Brent Quinton Downs, the pilot, were found dead inside the plush, twin-engine turboprop Air Hawk Commander.

Two other persons, a copilot and a man charged with aiding Giffe, survived unharmed.

Nashville police and the FBI said the drama began shortly after midnight when Mrs. Giffe got off work from her job as a switchboard operator at a Nashville motel.

They said she showed up at the Nashville airport a short time later and was put aboard the private charter flight by Giffe. When his wife began fighting and screaming that she was being abducted, police said Giffe told Downs he was a doctor taking the woman to Atlanta for treatment.

But Downs asked for identification, they said, and Giffe whipped out his pistol and ordered the pilot to fly him to the Bahamas.

Once airborne, the pilot radioed he was being hijacked. FBI agents said Downs persuaded Giffe he was low on fuel and landed the plane at Jacksonville International Airport.

After the craft touched down, FBI agents surrounded it and shot out the tires and one engine that was still running. Police said Giffe fired twice through the plane's windshield and then turned the gun on his victims.

They said Mrs. Giffe, mother of a 21-month-old child, had been shot twice in the chest. Downs also was shot twice, once in the leg and once in the back of the head.

When agents boarded the plane they found Giffe dying near the door, the pilot dead in his seat and Mrs. Giffe dead in the rear of the craft.

Bobby Wayne Wallace, 32, surrendered without a fight and was charged with air piracy, the FBI said. Randall Crump, the copilot, was unhurt but was treated for shock.

Agent Jim O'Connor, who arrested Wallace, said, "I took a loaded .38 off him."

In Nashville, police said Giffe was a former instructor at Peabody College who was operating a real estate office at the time of the hijacking. They said the Giffes separated a week ago.

The plane belonged to Big Brother Aircraft, Inc., of Nashville. Police said Giffe had leased the plane Sunday night for a trip to Atlanta.

Would Drop Surcharge on Imports

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., has urged that the 10 per cent surcharge on most imports under President Nixon's wage-price freeze be dropped.

In a letter to his Arkansas constituents, Fulbright said that if the surcharge is retained after the 90-day period other countries are likely to impose a similar surcharge on exports from the United States.

He said such action would hurt Arkansas.

"We are the leading state in exportation of rice and poultry products and rank fourth in export of cotton, cottonseed oil, soybeans and soybean oil," he said. "About two-thirds of the state's $110-million rice crop is exported."

Waiting List for Veterans Hospitals

By GAYLORD SHAW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The number of sick and disabled veterans awaiting admission to Veterans Administration hospitals has more than doubled this year as the VA faces increased demands from a growing veterans population.

Even though four of every ten veterans who seek admission are rejected, records show the 166 VA hospitals have a waiting list of 6,300 patients, up 3,439 since last Dec. 31.

VA Administrator Donald Johnson said the present waiting list, although the highest in recent years, still is less than 25,000 patients awaiting treatment in 1968.

"VA is providing more medical care for more veterans than ever before in the history of the agency," Johnson said in an interview. He cited the record 818,000 veterans treated in the hospitals last year, and the 8 million outpatient visits. "The total will likely be exceeded this year," he said, as more Vietnam veterans join the ranks of those eligible for treatment.

Johnson said the agency's medical-care budget has more than doubled since 1965, and that the quality of care is steadily improving.

"I firmly believe the VA today is rendering better medical care to more sick and disabled veterans than ever before in history, but I also know that the quest for improvement must be our never-ending objective."

An Associated Press study, including visits to a dozen hospitals, found the majority of patients interviewed were satisfied with the quality of care they receive from VA doctors and nurses.

"They're treating me great," said 20-year old Wayne A. Weber, in the West Roxbury, Mass., VA hospital recovering from injuries suffered in a helicopter crash. Fellow paraplegic Robert Nadeau agrees: "This treatment has just been fine."

LABOR PARTY

want the party's six million members to back a demand for submitting the issue to the test of a special national election.

But the party's deputy leader, Roy Jenkins, with a group of former Cabinet ministers, has mounted a direct challenge to this policy.

Jenkins argued at a convention eve rally Sunday night that British hopes of an effective world role rest on joining an enlarged Common Market. He called for a Labor party alliance with Socialist parties on the continent to give West Europe a left-wing leadership.

The convention seems certain to support Wilson and those opposing market entry. But up to 40 of Labor's 289 members of Parliament are expected to rebel against the party and vote to join the market. Heath's Conservative party, with 328 seats, is also divided over joining Europe, but the government is expected to win by a margin of from 20 to 40 when the Common Market vote is taken Oct. 28.

Under British party practice, a lawmaker risks his political future if he votes against his own colleagues on a vital issue. Jenkins nevertheless has vowed to do just that, even though it could cost him his post as deputy leader.

In anticipation, some of Jenkins' party colleagues already have begun maneuvering to bid for his job. Left-winger Michael Foot has declared his intention to do so. Denis Healey and James Callaghan, who served with Jenkins in Wilson's cabinet, are other contestants.

Besides the divisions within the leadership, Laborites seemed confused over what to offer the British people as an alternative to the Common Market—or whether there is any alternative.

Some delegates are urging the party to commit itself to the aid of a "Socialist United States of Europe," meaning a sort of common market embracing East and West Europe. Others are saying the party should face the fact that Heath's terms for entry are not bad after all.

And a few are grumbling that the party chiefs overstepped themselves by deciding to oppose entry before winning the consent of the labor movement as a whole.

West Coast Dock Strike Is Longest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The West Coast's dock strike became the longest in its history today, entering its 96th day as mediators reported some progress in the negotiations.

Talks in the East Coast dock strike, which began Friday, resume today in New York City. Negotiators for 80,000 striking soft coal miners were to report to their members today.

J. Curtis Counts, chief federal mediator in the West Coast dock walkout, said in San Francisco Sunday, "We're nearer a settlement than we were before and we're still trying."

The talks between the striking International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union and the Pacific Maritime Association were recessed after four hours with another session set for today.

The strike which began July 1 had idled 15,000 longshoremen, tied up some 208 ships and their crews and cost the economy of California alone an estimated $1.5 billion.

The longest previous dock strike on the West Coast ended on Christmas Eve in 1948 after 96 days.

At issue is a dispute over off-dock handling of containers and ILWU's demands for guaranteed pay for 40 hours a week, plus a $1.60 hourly raise over the present base pay of $4.29 an hour.

The East Coast strike involves 45,000 members of the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association who work in ports from Maine to Texas.

The ILA struck over the New York Shipping Association's refusal to extend a contract provision for a guaranteed annual income of 2,080 hours of pay a year for eligible longshoremen.

Locals elsewhere walked out in support of the union's refusal to work without a contract extension in New York.

There were no developments Sunday in the three-day strike by 80,000 United Mine Workers members in 20 coal-producing states.

Nixon Turns to Solitude of Beaches

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — President Nixon turned to the solitude of ocean beaches to ponder his next step in reshaping the administration's economic policy.

Nixon, who is expected to return to Washington today, arrived here Thursday night with several volumes of recommendations from his advisers for Phase 2 of his economic policy.

He spent some time Friday working in the study of his Key Biscayne retreat, then strolled the beach nearby and took a cruise on friend C. G. "Bebe" Rebozo's house boat. On Saturday, he flew by helicopter to Grand Cay in the Bahamas, the home of another friend, industrialist Robert B. Abplanalp.

He drove immediately to the beach. Later, he worked alone in Abplanalp's hilltop home, then spent more time on the beach before returning by helicopter to Key Biscayne Sunday afternoon.

Before leaving Washington, aides said Nixon would spend most of the weekend working on the economic policy to replace the wage-price freeze which expires Nov. 13. Announcement of his decisions on Phase 2 has been promised before Oct. 15.

The Florida White House did issue a strongly worded statement condemning a threatened move in Congress to overturn his postponement, as part of Phase 1 of his economic policy, of pay raises for 43 million federal and military employees.

In the statement, Nixon said such a veto would be "an unmistakable signal... to business, labor and to skeptical friends abroad that the legislative branch has unilaterally withdrawn from the national al-

Light Showers Scattered Over State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Light showers were scattered over Arkansas today as a weak cold front continued to move through the state.

The National Weather Service said early today the front extended through Southeast Arkansas and was slowly moving out of the area.

The front was anchored to a low pressure center in the eastern lakes region of Canada and extended southward through eastern Indiana and to the South Texas coast, the service said.

Rainfall amounts were mostly light in Arkansas early today, but some heavy rain fell Sunday in Northwest Arkansas. Several reporting points in Crawford County reported as much as two inches of precipitation.

The Weather Service said skies should begin clearing by noon today with the shower activity moving out of the eastern portion of the state by late afternoon.

As the sky clears over the state, temperatures were expected to be somewhat cooler through Tuesday. The Weather Service was calling for lows in the 40s to 60s. The highs were expected to be in the 70s to 80s.

The extended outlook calls for clear to partly cloudy Wednesday through Friday. Low in the 50s and highs in the 70s and 80s.

Highs Sunday ranged from 71 at Fayetteville to 92 at Little Rock. Overnight lows included 54 at Fayetteville, 61 at Harrison, 68 at Jonesboro, 69 at Pine Bluff, 67 at Texarkana, 66 at El Dorado, 69 at Memphis, 68 at Little Rock and 61 at Fort Smith.

Precipitation for the 24-hour period that ended at 7 a.m. today included .18 of an inch at Harrison, .02 at Jonesboro, .10 at Pine Bluff, .01 at Texarkana, a trace at El Dorado and Little Rock and .13 at Fort Smith.

Birthday for Tricia's Hubby

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edward Cox, husband of Tricia Nixon, celebrated his 25th birthday at a quiet family dinner at Camp David, Md.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cox Sr., joined the young couple for a Saturday night dinner at the mountaintop lodge which serves as a White House retreat for President Nixon.

known, of Brinkley.

Officials said the four were killed Sunday when a car driven by Stafford pulled off the highway, then backed on to the highway.

Stafford's Volkswagen was struck by a station wagon driven by Kenneth Brittain, 18, of Des Arc.

Also killed Sunday were Walter Jefferson Jr., 18, and Mary Lee Bragg, 15, both of Osceola.

Police said the two were killed Sunday at a "T" intersection north of Osceola on a county road. Police said Jefferson failed to turn either direction and his car jumped a ditch and rammed into a bank.

Also killed this weekend were: —Dollie Young, 52 of Santuck, who was killed Saturday night when she was struck as she walked on Arkansas 1 near Marvell by a car driven by Karen Hindsley, 15, of Marvell.

—Dan E. Chism, 56, of Memphis when he was hit by a trailer truck as he walked along the west end of the Memphis-Arkansas bridge across the Mississippi River at West Memphis.

—James Moore, 20, of Gurdon died Saturday at a Little Rock hospital of injuries suffered in a two-vehicle accident Friday night near Prescott.

Accidentally Electrocuted at Mt. Holly

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — Union County officials said Jerry D. Morgan, 28, of Goldsboro, N.C., was accidentally electrocuted at nearby Mount Holly Sunday.

Authorities said Morgan and his father, John T. Morgan, 63, and his brother James T. Morgan, 39, were injured in the accident at the elder Morgan's home.

The men were carrying an aluminum ladder to a water well where they intended to do some work when the ladder fell across a power line.

Ruling Favors Fired School Official

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court, in a 6-1 ruling, upheld today a decision by Calhoun County Chancellor Jim Rowan that a former Hampton School District Superintendent was entitled to damages of $13,060 for his discharge last year.

Supt. Hodge Phillips was discharged as of June 30, 1970 by the school board.

Phillips contended, however, that his contract was supposed to run through June 30, 1971.

The practice in the district was to execute two-year contracts of employment. Toward the end of the first year, under such contracts, however, the parties always executed a new two-year contract, usually containing a raise in Phillips' salary, and this superceded the second year of the previous two-year contract.

The board, on July 1, 1969, approved a $1,500 salary increase for Phillips, who, with his secretary, prepared all the district's contracts with teachers and other employees and had been given authority by the board to sign the contracts with a rubber stamp facsimile signature of the president and secretary of the board.

Phillips and his secretary made two errors in preparing his own contract subsequent to the 1969 board meeting, however, including the use of a one-year form of contract rather than a two-year form.

Both Phillips and his secretary testified to this effect without contradiction after he instituted suit for damages following his dismissal. Rowan agreed and modified the contract to conform to what had been testified.

The high court held that Phillips was entitled to damages for the salary denied to him since the dismissal deprived him of income that would have been due to him under the second year of the contract as modified by the chancellor.

"Needless to say, the mistake was mutual if both Phillips and the district meant for the re-

Monday, October 4, 1971 newal contract to be of two years duration," the Supreme Court said.

The court said that while it had held in another case that a school board resolution authorizing employment of a superintendent is not in itself a contract of hire, in Phillips' case "the parties went further and jointly signed a contract..."

Associate Justice Conley Byrd dissented, arguing that the school board resolution did not constitute a contract and that all action taken on the contract was by Phillips himself, including the affixing of facsimile signatures of school board officials to the document.

"Thus I am unable to see how the school board could be involved in any mistake that may have been made," Byrd said.

Dock Strike Could Cost Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dan Roebuck, director of the Department of Industrial Development, said Saturday a nationwide dock strike could cause Arkansas to lose several million dollars daily.

Roebuck said the strike by the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association probably will hurt those manufacturers who ship their goods down the Arkansas River to New Orleans.

The director said if the strike continued, manufacturers might be forced to lay off employees to avoid having their goods pile up in warehouses.

James Mason, vice president of administration for Riceland Foods at Stuttgart, said the strike will leave its mark on his company.

He said Riceland "wouldn't have any alternative... but to restrict our processing and shipping operation" if the strike continues.

During the last dock strike in 1969 that lasted four months, Mason said Arkansas farmers lost about $75 million.

Mason Locke Weems wrote the biography of George Washington containing the legendary "cherry tree incident." The book is historically inaccurate.

Free Exams Are Available

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I'll skip formalities because I forgot most of them over here, but I can still write my requests. I've just read a late issue of your column about gonorrhea being the No. 2 infection in the United States. Well, I feel it would be a great service if you would have an article explaining the symptoms, what they cause or do to your sexual organs, and what cures there are and what early detection and treatment will do.

Being in Vietnam for seven months, stationed just outside of Saigon, "The World's Sin Capital," I've seen a few cases of things and have broadened my life with knowledge I'd like for you to pass on to other young people.

Also, I feel this point should be one of the heaviest points stressed in sex education in schools. I would be very pleased if you passed my point of view along to people who are in charge of sex education in schools.

Dear Reader—Your idea of including information on venereal disease in sex education is right on target. With each freedom should go a little responsibility. The truth is that an informed public using mature judgment could wipe out venereal disease.

The main point I'd like to make is that anyone can go to his or her local health department (city or county, depending on local organizational structure) for a free examination and treatment for venereal disease. Lack of money is no barrier to medical attention for anyone.

Gonorrhea is spread by sexual activity. In the male, the inflammation causes burning and itching during urination. A discharge may soon follow. The creamy or yellow discharge and discomfort usually warns the man. The female may have no symptoms and no noticeable discharge, other than her normal amount of natural secretions. She can be infected and not realize it. In the male, the tubes to the testicle are involved and may become scarred, making him permanently sterile. The tubes in the female are similarly affected and may cause permanent sterility.

Gonorrhea can also cause arthritis, which is particularly difficult to treat.

The woman taking birth control pills is twice as easily infected on exposure to gonorrhea. The pills affect the normal acidity of the vagina, which helps to ward off germs.

Syphilis can cause an in-

Life Membership to Mrs. Nan Taylor

MRS. JOE JONES and MRS. CHARLES TAYLOR

At a meeting of Leslie Huddleston Unit 12, American Legion Auxiliary, Tuesday night, September 27, Mrs. Joe Jones, Unit President, presented Mrs. Charles (Nan) Taylor a Lifetime Membership Pin in recognition of her outstanding volunteer work as membership chairman for the past 12 years.

Mrs. Taylor has 24 consecutive years membership in the American Legion Auxiliary and is to be commended for her faithful service to the community and the Unit. "It is members like Nan that make our organization great," said Unit President Jones.

Music was the theme of the September meeting with special emphasis on the 95th Psalm, the Hymn of the Month, "Just a Closer Walk With God," and the patriotic song, "You're A Grand Old Flag." Mrs. Jones spoke briefly about the importance of musical therapy in all kinds of hospitals.

Mrs. Fred Formby voiced the opening prayer and reported on the fall conference she had attended in Little Rock, when the National President, Mrs. Robert L. Parker of Oklahoma, was the special guest.

Membership chairman, Mrs. Charles Taylor, reported 108 memberships had been received, and she urged all others to pay dues by the deadline, November 10, as the Girls State quota this year will be based on memberships paid by that date. Miss Floice Taylor, treasurer, reported several contributions had been made to the Memorial Scholarship Fund.

The hostesses for the meeting were Miss Floice Taylor and her mother, Mrs. W. C. Taylor, at their home on South Walnut Street. Coffee and dessert were served to 12 members. The meeting was adjourned after all repeated the Lord's Prayer.

fection without any evident signs. A small sore may develop soon after exposure but it may be so small, or within the vagina, that it goes unnoticed. Untreated syphilis is the great imitator, causing problems similar to almost all diseases known. It causes heart disease, brain disease, joint disease and paralysis.

Venereal disease can often be prevented by using an old-fashioned condom. However, with sexual promiscuity the danger is always there, and particularly now with venereal disease reaching epidemic proportion—some say out of control. If you have been exposed, the wise course is to have an examination.

The high rate of V.D. and the sterility it causes may well eliminate the danger of a population explosion in the United States unless the problem is brought under control.

NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Viewers who have looked in on "The Doctors" segment of NBC's "The Bold Ones" over the past couple of years may have noted the shift of emphasis in its plots. It has moved from an exploration of the new frontiers of medical science to treating human dilemmas.

This puts it in the category with CBS' "Medical Center" and ABC's "Marcus Welby, M.D." but sometimes there is a difference. Sunday night's drama was a sympathetic treatment of a hospital paramedic—a doctor's assistant—who was stealing hospital supplies to treat illegally sick people in a slum district. It was notable for the intense performance of Zoëy Hall as a former Vietnam medic and even more for some of his explosive dialogue about inadequate medical care for the poor—lack of physicians in slum areas and long waits for short appointments in clinics. Most of television's doctor shows have scripts checked and approved by committees from physicians' organizations and treat the profession with velvet-glove reverence.

The story had, however, the balance of concerned, dedicated doctors in the series' regulars, David Hartman, E. G. Marshall and John Saxon.

It was an hour with something to say and it said it with bite—a rather rare program among television's deliberately bland dramatic efforts.

The Public Broadcasting stations opened their new season Sunday night with another in the "Masterpiece Theatre" series. This time a six-part adaptation of Thomas Hardy's "Jude the Obscure," acquired from the British Broadcasting Corporation.

Like its earlier imports—"The Forsyte Saga" and "The Churchills"—it is a beautifully produced period piece. Unlike the earlier two, the American viewer had a problem during the first show—understanding the thick country accents of the English characters.

It is the story of Jude Fawcley, an orphan from a working class family who has a passion for books and learning and is determined to win a university education. His passion for a pig farmer's daughter, however, forces him into a brief, unfortunate marriage.

The acting was excellent, headed by Robert Powell who plays the worried Jude and Alex Marshall as the wanton farmer's daughter. Hardy was making some caustic observations about class distinctions and, in the first episode, indicated strongly that he thought marriage was a trap for the unwary male.

MAN'S EYE VIEW OF WOMEN'S LIBERATION

Dear Helen:

I don't see why men are down on women's liberation when it will liberate us from bad scenes like:

1. Being the breadwinner.
2. Making the decisions.
3. Opening doors and otherwise kowtowing to the ladies.
4. Acting unnaturally polite in the presence of women.
5. Worrying because we're the "head of the family" with all the responsibility.
6. Being the supreme protector, the strong one, the boss, the "owner." It will be great to relax and be just a husband.

Me, I'm glad to shuck a lot of this nonsense and let my wife take her fair share. If she earns more money than I do, who cares? She's welcome to equal rights, because I'm tired of the he-man role.

I say, "Thank you, liberators, you're giving men a chance to rest!" —READY TO ABDICATE
Dear RTA:

Either you're a candidate for the men's auxiliary of N.O.W. or you're a low-key satirist. Either way, you've made some good points. Hang in there! —H.

Dear Helen:

This "Joe" who blasts women in bars: he needs an answer: Just because HE is all eyes, and perhaps on the make, doesn't mean that everyone is. I am one of four "singles" who go out to have fun, not wrestling matches.

We go to the bar together, and leave the same way, after joking around, dancing a little, meeting friends. If a girl lets a fellow know she's just out to have fun (no games), he won't be expecting to drag her to bed.

Come on, Joe, all girls aren't tramps because they show up in bars unescorted. That's a view that was going out 20 years ago!

—DOTTIE

Dear Helen:

Joe complained about women in hotpants at bars. Men don't stare at women's legs any more (unless they're too old to do anything else). The miniskirt cured that. A long expanse of leg isn't a come-on, Joe, old boy. It's simply a style... and the leg has to be fantastically shapely these days to make a man's head turn. —A LITTLE SAD ABOUT THAT
Dear Helen:

I'm a happily married woman, and I go into a bar on my way home from work—not to pick up men, but to relax over a drink or two, chat with people (not about sex, but about what's happening in the world).

My husband trusts me. He knows that I can handle the occasional "masher." But most men don't. My advice to "Joe" is to give his mind a good scrubbing and keep his hands where they belong (on the bar, around his glass). —SHIRLEY
Dear Helen:

The letter by "Joseph" should be a warning to women, who think they're so "equal" they can invade bars alone. They should change their dress habits back to decency, and stay home where they belong. This would go a long way toward bringing crime under control, as everybody knows the way females dress these days is an open invitation to rapists and murderers. —A FRIEND OF THE FAIR SEX

Tech Breaks Jinx at Arkadelphia

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arkansas Tech broke the Arkadelphia jinx Saturday night. It had been six years since the Wonder Boys had won a game in Arkadelphia, but Tech's powerful ground game proved too much for Henderson and the Wonder Boys rambling to a 35-14 victory.

This was the second straight Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference victory for the Wonder Boys, ranked sixth in the nation in the NAIA poll. Tech also is the preseason favorite to win the AIC championship.

In other games Saturday night, Ouachita crushed Mississippi College 28-0 at Clinton, Miss., Arkansas AM&N whipped the University of Arkansas at Monticello 27-14, State College of Arkansas blasted Northeast Missouri 34-0, and the Southern State Muleriders trampled Harding 34-7.

Larry Brown and Benny Shepard each scored twice as Tech piled up 512 yards in total offense against Henderson. Shepard fled 45 yards for one touchdown and plunged two yards for another. Brown, who rolled up 148 yards on 22 carries, scored on runs of five and eight yards. Quarterback Phil Fisher picked up a Tech touchdown on a one-yard plunge.

Henderson scored both its touchdowns in the second quarter. Billy LeFay, who gained 90 yards rushing, bolted six yards for a TD, and quarterback Lewis Pryor ran six yards for the other.

Ouachita, behind the running of tailback Johnny Baker, gained its third straight victory of the season. Baker rushed for 211 yards on 26 carries and scored once in the victory over Mississippi College.

The Tigers did all their scoring in the last half. David Crowley went 11 yards, Barry Bennett sneaked one yard and Baker raced seven yards for the Ouachita scores.

Dan Winston added the final tally of the night in the fourth period for Ouachita with a 71-yard punt return.

Quarterback Mike New rifled three touchdown passes to lead SCA to its victory over Northeast Missouri's Bulldogs. The Bulldogs lost five fumbles and suffered two interceptions.

New completed touchdown passes of 21 yards to Ronny Brown and 43 yards to Larry Smith and was credited with another scoring completion when his pass skipped through the hands of James Hall and Doug Watford grappled the ball and ran 18 yards for the TD.

The Bears got three of their touchdowns in the fourth quarter and scored two of those in less than two minutes. Zelmor Morris recovered a Bulldog fumble at the one and Jessie Ward plunged for the TD. On the following kickoff, SCA covered a fumble at the Bulldog four and Nathaniel Daniel plunged over from the one.

Southern State picked off three Harding passes and returned each for a score in the Muleriders' victory over the Bison at Searcy. It was the AIC opener for each team.

Mulender halfback Cornell Williams rushed for 110 yards in the first quarter and scored a TD on a one-yard run. Roy McLemore also scored for SSC on a one-yard run, and then came the three TDs on interceptions.

Steve Waller returned one 25 yards for the score. Steve Arnett returned one 15 yards and Boyd Rosser returned one for 25 yards and a score.

Harding's score came on a 25-yard pass from quarterback Tom Ed Gooden to Rick Sammons.

Quarterback Bruce Swinton passed for one touchdown and ran for another as AM&N defeated UA-Monticello. Swinton fired 11 yards to Wallace Francis for a TD in the first quarter, then ran eight yards for a score in the second period.

Budd White scored on a four-yard run in the first period and Larry Higgins plunged a yard in the second period for the other AM&N scores.

Homer Happy Playoff Is Deadlocked

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The sign in Candlestick Park's upper right field seats boldly proclaimed in fire engine red: "The Year of the Fox."

It may be the year for San Francisco Manager Charlie Fox. Who knows? But Sunday was the day of the rabbit ball for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Pirates tormented the San Francisco Giants with 15 hits, including Bob Robertson's three home runs, to secure a 9-4 victory and deadlock the homer-happy National League playoffs at one game apiece.

The best-of-five-game series continues Tuesday with game No. 3 in Pittsburgh.

"That guy on first base (Robertson) was nasty," said Fox, pointing to the Pirate slugger's playoff-record performance that drove in five runs, the winning margin.

"Robertson was the whole story today," agreed Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh.

Oh, boy, was he ever! The brawny, carrot-topped slugger hadn't reached the fences in six weeks. After hitting a double in the second inning, he went to work with circuit shots in the fourth, seventh and ninth.

"Six weeks without a homer is too long for a man with his power," said Murtaugh.

Robertson, himself, was just happy to be playing—let alone turn out to be the hitting hero. He once sat out a season with a kidney ailment.

"I am thankful to be in baseball after the scare I received from my kidney trouble," said Robertson amidst the joyful euphoria of the Pirates' locker room.

While Robertson turned on the power, reliever Bob Miller helped to turn off the Giants with four innings of lofty work. His performance was almost lost in Robertson's herculean performance.

"Miller did a great job," said Murtaugh. "He hasn't been outstanding lately. But I thought he was outstanding out there for four innings against the Giants."

The right-hander had some tough work to do when starter Dock Ellis, the Pirates' sinder, 19-game winner, got in hot water in the sixth inning. The first two batters reached base, one hit by a pitch and the other with a base hit, and Miller came in to protect a 4-2 lead.

Miller got pinch-hitter Frank Duffy to bunt foul for a third strike, but slipped deeper into quicksand when he walked Ken Henderson to load the bases. Then the cool reliever struck out Tito Fuentes and got out of the jam when Willie Mays lined to Roberto Clemente in right.

"If there was a key play, it was when Miller struck out Fuentes in the sixth," said Murtaugh.

"I struck him out with a fast ball on the outside," declared Miller. "I noticed Saturday the pitch he hit for a home run was inside and he hit a couple of other good balls off inside pitches."

"I was determined to keep the ball outside on him. I'd have to say this was the most satisfying game since joining Pittsburgh, even though I didn't get through the ninth inning."

Miller served up three straight hits to open the ninth, including Willie May's two-run homer, before Dave Gusti came in to get the side out.

Along with the home runs by Robertson and Mays, Gene Clines also belted one in the fifth to give the Pirates and Giants a total of seven for the two-game set in San Francisco.

"I think these two clubs are primarily the same," noted Murtaugh. "It's not that the pitching isn't good, it's just that both are good hitting clubs. Our

Mistakes Downfall of Bobcats

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Last Friday night the Hope Bobcats suffered a disappointing 17-7 loss to the Malvern Leopards, reducing any chance of the TAA Championship Title and state playoffs.

The loss lowered the Bobcats overall record to 3-2 while Malvern is the same in the overall slated, but the difference is that the Leopards are undefeated in conference play while the Cats have two losses.

During the first half of the game the Bobcats played some fine football and held a 7-0 lead at halftime, but early in the second half the tide seemingly turned and Hope surrendered the lead and the victory, although fighting to the end.

Hope scored first on a nine play scoring drive in the second quarter when quarterback Robie Boyd hit tight end Ricky Hart with a 16 yard scoring toss on a fourth and eight situation. Tim White drove the extra point through the uprights and the Cats held a 7-0 lead with 10:15 left in the half.

Neither team could move the ball deep in the enemy territory for the remainder of the half and the score, at halftime, remained the same.

On their first possession of the second half, after recovering a Bobcat fumble at the Hope 38 yard line, the Leopards drove the distance to the goal line in just eight plays for their first score of the night, but still trailed the Bobcats after the PAT attempt failed.

With both teams playing about even the rest of the quarter, the fourth quarter would certainly decide the outcome of the game.

Capitalizing on the Bobcats' mistakes, Malvern scored 11 points in the final segment to put the game out of reach. Two safeties and a touchdown run by Rodney Davis accounted for the points.

On Friday night the Bobcats head into another TAA contest when they host the Crossett Eagles at Hammons Stadium at 7:30 p.m. Although the Cats may be considered out of the race there is a chance they can get back in the running.

Thursday night sends the Bobkittens up toward Camden for their fourth game of the year after a Weeks' layoff. Hopefully, the Kitten defense can hold the Panther Cubs to practically nothing and let the offense try to score the points. If the offense can score then Hope should come away victorious.

series have been like this all year."

The Pirates' victory, first ever in a playoff and only third in Candlestick Park in the last 14 games, doesn't necessarily give them a psychological edge as the teams head back to Pittsburgh, says Murtaugh.

"I don't believe in home team advantages," said Murtaugh. "I think if you're good enough to win a division title, then you're good enough to win home or away."

"I just play the players I think can win on any given day and hope they're not. The hot team will win the pennant."

Redskins Smash the Cowboys

By BERT ROSENTHAL

Associated Press Sports Writer
"The future is now," said George Allen after being named head coach and general manager of the Washington Redskins last January—and he wasn't kidding.

In Allen's first season at the helm, the Redskins, perennial losers in the National Football League, are off to their fastest start since 1943.

For the first time in 28 years, they have won their first three regular season games, their latest triumph a 20-16 upset over the Dallas Cowboys Sunday in the Cotton Bowl.

"This should make up for the Senators' coming to Texas," said the smiling Allen, referring to the recently announced shift of Washington's baseball franchise to Dallas-Fort Worth for next season. "We had to make the folks back home proud of us."

The victory put the rejuvenated Redskins into sole possession of first place in the Eastern Division of the National Football Conference and left them as the only unbeaten club in the NFC.

Cleveland, the lone undefeated team in the American Football Conference, puts its 20 record on the line tonight against Oakland in a nationally televised game (ABC, 9 P.M., EDT).

In Sunday's other NFL games, Detroit held off Atlanta 41-38, Baltimore whipped New England 23-3, Minnesota overpowered Buffalo 19-0, Los Angeles downed Chicago 17-3, San Francisco battered Philadelphia 31-3, Kansas City trimmed Denver 16-3, the New York Giants nipped St. Louis 21-20, the New York Jets upended Miami 14-10, Green Bay topped Cincinnati 20-17, Pittsburgh defeated San Diego 21-17, and New Orleans and Houston struggled to a 13-13 tie.

Allen said the Redskins "played our game and didn't make any mistakes" against the previously unbeaten Cowboys.

Charley Harraway's 57-yard touchdown run in the first period, Bill Kilmer's 50-yard TD pass to Roy Jefferson in the second quarter and second-half field goals of 25 and 32 yards by Curt Knight accounted for the Washington scoring.

Detroit defensive back Mike Weger, who scored on a 52-yard fumble return, described the Lions-Falcons game as a "free-for-all." The loss knocked Atlanta from the unbeaten ranks.

Greg Landry tossed two scoring passes for the Lions and Ron Jessie scampered 97 yards with a kickoff return for another touchdown.

Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas combined for 19 pass completions in 24 attempts, veteran Tom Matte and rookie Don Nottingham each ran for a touchdown, Jim O'Brien pitched field goals of 41, 42, and 50 yards, and Bubba Smith led a tenacious defense in Baltimore's victory over New England.

Minnesota's pass rush was even better against Buffalo. The Vikings front four dumped Buffalo quarterback Dennis Shaw for seven losses totaling 59 yards, giving the Bills only eight net yards in the air. Dave Osborn sparked the Minnesota offense, rushing 19 times for 93 yards, catching five passes for 65 yards and scoring once. Los Angeles' victory over Chicago was its first in three games under new Coach Tom Prothro and ended the Cinderella heroics of quarterback Kent Nix.

Nix, after replacing injured starter Jack Concannon, completed only 5 of 23 passes for 60 yards and had three interceptions against the Rams' fired-up defense. Concannon was lost indefinitely with an injured knee.

San Francisco, in handing winless Philadelphia its third lopsided loss, rolled up 510 total yards, including 308 in the air.

John Brodie fired three touchdown passes for the 49ers, two to Ted Kwalick.

Middle linebacker Willie Lanier led the Kansas City defense that muffled Denver's offense. Lanier made eight unassisted tackles, assisted on two others, broke up a pass play and recovered a Bronco fumble. Jan Stenerud booted three field goals for the Chiefs and Aaron Brown scored the game's only touchdown on a 68-yard pass interception.

Fran Tarkenton scored one touchdown and passed for another, while rookie Rocky Thompson streaked 93 yards with a kickoff return for another TD, sparking the Giants' upset over St. Louis.

The Jets recovered a punt that bounced off Miami safetyman Dick Anderson with five minutes left to beat the Dolphins. Following the recovery, the Jets went 37 yards, with George Nock scoring from the two for his second touchdown.

A Cincinnati gamble that backfired with two minutes remaining enabled Green Bay to edge the Bengals. With the Packers leading 20-17, the Bengals had fourth down and two at the Green Bay seven.

Bengal Coach Paul Brown decided to go for the first down or the touchdown rather than a tying field goal. But the Packers' stopped rookie quarterback Ken Anderson at the line of scrimmage.

Pittsburgh turned a San Diego fumble and a pass interception into touchdowns and stopped three Charger threats in the closing minutes to nip the Chargers. John Fuqua scored twice for the Steelers.

Charley Durkee, released earlier this season by Houston, got revenge by kicking a 37-yard field goal with nine seconds left, giving New Orleans its tie with the Oilers. Mark Moseley, who had lifted Houston into a 13-10 lead with a 44-yard field goal with 59 seconds remaining, missed a 50-yarder with four seconds to go.

Cevert Wins His First Grand Prix

WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. (AP) — Francois Cevert won his first Grand Prix race Sunday, riding home far in front of old pro Jo Siffert before more than 100,000 at Watkins Glen.

But the 27-year-old son of a French jeweler let it be known immediately that the U.S. Grand Prix was about the fourth choice on his list of places where he wanted to break into the winner's circle.

"I'd much rather have won the French, German or Monaco Grand Prix," said the curly-haired, blue-eyed bachelor. "But the U.S. Grand Prix ... well it's the most money paid on the Formula 1 circuit and that is good, very good."

Blue Devils in Upset of Stanford

Mike McGee left Duke as an honored loser on the football field. Now he's back and possibly as an honored winner.

As a Duke senior in 1959 he won the Outland Award as the outstanding lineman in the nation but the team was only 4-6. As Duke head coach Saturday he guided the unbeaten Blue Devils to their fourth straight victory—a 9-3 upset of 10th-ranked Stanford.

"We were caught by a well coached, well prepared team. I feel badly about misjudging their ability," Stanford Coach John Ralston said after Ernie Jackson of 19th-ranked Duke ran 54 yards with an intercepted pass for the touchdown that sent the Indians their first loss after three victories.

All of the other members of The Associated Press' Top Ten won: Top-ranked Nebraska rolled over Utah State 42-6, No. 2 Michigan mauled Navy 46-0, No. 3 Texas whipped Oregon 35-7, fourth-ranked Notre Dame topped Auburn State 14-2, fifth-ranked Michigan smashed Kentucky 38-5, No. 6 Colorado downed Kansas State 31-21, No. 7 Alabama blasted Mississippi 40-6, eighth-ranked Oklahoma ripped No. 17 Southern California 33-20 and ninth-ranked Penn State edged Air Force 16-14.

All of the first nine-ranked teams are unbeaten and untied.

In games involving other Second Ten teams, No. 11 Georgia drubbed Mississippi State 35-7, No. 12 Tennessee took Florida 20-13, No. 13 Arizona State beat Texas-El Paso 24-7, 14th-ranked Ohio State smashed California 35-3, 15th-ranked Washington mauled Illinois 52-14, No. 16 Louisiana State clubbed Rice 38-3, 18th-ranked Arkansas walloped Texas Christian 49-15 and No. 20 North Carolina topped North Carolina State 27-7.

Nebraska rolled behind Jerry Tagge who passed for two collected $50,000 from the $267,000 purse.

"It's a fortune," he smiled. "And don't you kid me, dollars are still worth plenty in Europe."

The Frenchman's first Formula 1 victory actually was an easy one. He started the race in fifth place among 29 starters, but by the end of half a dozen laps around the Glen's new 3.377-mile circuit, he was pushing Stewart for the lead.

Stewart, who already had clinched his second world driving title with six triumphs in 10 starts, suddenly slowed as the leaders made their 14th trip around, and Cevert bolted ahead—never to be overtaken.

He finished about 40 seconds ahead of Siffert, who was driving a BRM, and almost a minute ahead of Ronnie Peterson of Sweden, who came in third. Siffert was paid $20,000 and Peterson $12,000.

Stewart finished fifth, in the same lap with Cevert, Siffert, Peterson and fourth-placer Howden Ganley of New Zealand.

Belgian Jacky Ickx, who took up the challenge of Cevert when Stewart faded, was forced into a late pit stop that put him out of action. But before he left, the Ferrari driver had set the fastest lap in the race, 116.964 mph., and collected a $5,000 bonus.

Meanwhile, Bobby Unser of Albuquerque, N.M., starting from the pole position led for 190 of 200 laps in winning the Marlboro 300-mile race for Indianapolis-type cars at the Trenton, N.J. Speedway.

Unser averaged 140.771 miles per hour, smashing the track record of 134.381 m.p.h. set in 1969 by Mario Andretti of Nazareth, Pa. Andretti finished second Sunday.

However, Joe Leonard of San Jose, Calif., who wound up third, clinched the U.S. Auto Club national driving championship.

George Follmer of Arcadia, Calif., won the final race of the 10-race Trans-American sedan race series, leading all the way in capturing the Mission Bell 200-mile event over Riverside International Raceway's road course in California.

Follmer, who started from the pole position, toured 79 laps at an average speed of 98.679 miles an hour, covering 201.45 miles.

Vic Elford and Jackie Oliver, both of England, finished second and third, respectively.

Smith Had The Idea, Hyde Supplied Talent; Passion Play Is Born

EUREKA SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Gerald L. K. Smith had the idea and raised the money. Robert Hyde supplied talent and initiative.

The play, in turn, brought a rebirth of tourism to a locality once nationally acclaimed as a touchdowns and scored two more on short runs.

Billy Taylor ran for 78 yards to surpass Tom Harmon by one yard as Michigan's second greatest rusher with 2,115 career yards as the Wolverines romped over Navy. Ron Johnson holds the Michigan career rushing record of 2,440 yards.

Quarterback Donnie Wigginton ran for 116 yards and one touchdown in leading Texas over Oregon State.

Bob Minnix ran for a pair of first-quarter touchdowns and then held on to win a game that led Michigan State's Duffy Daugherty to say, "This was the worst officiated game I've seen in all my years of coaching."

Daugherty was upset about two offensive pass interference calls that cost Michigan State big gains and another play in which he thought Notre Dame should have been called for roughing the kicker.

Pat Sullivan passed for two touchdowns and 253 yards and Terry Beasley caught nine passes for 194 yards and one touchdown in Auburn's rout of Kentucky.

Cliff Branch, who ran a punt back for a touchdown in the upset of Ohio State, did it again and also caught a scoring pass in Colorado's victory over Kansas State.

Johnny Musso tied a Southeastern Conference record with his 31st career touchdown and rushed for 193 yards to spark Alabama's smashing of Mississippi.

Oklahoma got by Southern California on the running of Greg. Pruitt who scored on dashes of 75, 38 and seven yards.

Penn State's victory over Air Force came when Alberto Vitello, a 5-foot-7 junior college transfer kicked a 22-yard field goal with four minutes left and State trailing 14-13.

Browns' Wide Receivers to Be on Spot

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Cleveland Browns' wide receivers will be on the spot tonight when the Browns take on the Oakland Raiders here in a nationally televised game starting at 9 o'clock, EST.

Oakland's rugged defense kept Gary Collins and Fair Hooker and the other Browns' wide receivers from catching a pass last season when the Raiders edged Cleveland on George Blanda's last-minute field goal out in California. Hooker says he is looking forward to the challenge, but he will have to be at his best because he will be facing Willie Brown, Oakland's top defensive back.

The Browns, winners over Houston and Baltimore in their two starts this season, don't know what to expect in the way of an Oakland pass defense in tonight's game, which is expected to draw a standing-room-only crowd of about 80,000.

The Raiders used considerable zone coverage, as well as the bump and run, in losing their opener to New England, then rebounding to rout San Diego.

The Browns need a victory to give them a one-game lead over the Pittsburgh Steelers in the American Football Conference's Central Division, while a loss would drop them to a first-place tie.

Oakland must win to keep pace with the Kansas City Chiefs, 2-1, in the Western Division. A loss would drop them into a second-place tie with San Diego.

Cleveland and Oakland are averaging about the same in overall offense, the difference being that the Raiders have stayed mainly on the ground in their attack while the Browns' success has come through the air

Smith contacted Hyde, and Hyde came to Eureka Springs and surveyed the natural amphitheater in which the passion play's 500-foot set eventually was built.

Hyde was interested in the project, Smith said, but there were questions about financing, and no decision was reached.

In another three months, Smith said, Hyde was back again, this time with the scenario recorded on tape by friends who were professional actors.

"We were overwhelmed," Smith said. "We told him that we didn't know how it was going to be paid for but that we would commission him to do it."

Lincoln Service has helped thousands prepare for these tests every year since 1918. It is one of the largest and oldest privately owned schools of its kind and is not connected with the Government.

Opening lead—♥ 5

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Oswald: "We are frequently asked if we ever open one no-trump when we hold a five-card major. Our answer is that we do any time our hand fulfills all requirements for a no-trump opening."

Jim: "Today's hand illustrates why we favor the no-trump opening when our hand meets these requirements. After South's opening no-trump, North has a classic raise to game. If West makes his normal opening lead of the fourth best heart, South proceeds to rattle off 10 tricks. If West opens some other suit the play will go more slowly but the end result will be nine or 10 tricks. In other words, three no-trump played by South is a cinch contract."

Oswald: "Let's see what happens if South opens one spade. North may elect to respond one no-trump. South will study awhile. He may pass or he may raise to two no-trump. If he raises to two no-trump, North will continue to game. East will be on lead and is quite likely to lead the jack of hearts. If he does West will win the first five tricks and no one can make three no-trump that way."

Jim: "North may raise spades. Playing in spades, South will probably be held to nine tricks. Nine tricks are enough for game in no-trump. They aren't enough in spades."

Civil Defense Conference Held Here

Hempstead County Judge Finis Odom, and Civil Defense Director Mrs. Geneva P. Downing, attended a first in the nation Civil Defense Conference at the Arkansas Civil Defense Emergency Operations Center, in Conway on September 28-29, 1971. Mr. Ralph H. Moore, Director Arkansas Civil Defense, invited county officials from eleven (11) counties throughout the state to participate. He stated, "we undertook this first in the nation conference to expose you to the new look of Civil Defense that is being advocated by the national office. This new look program is one, which the state staff and I have believed in for some time and welcomed the opportunity to discuss it with you."

John McConnell, Assistant Director for Plans and Operations in the National Office of Washington, D.C., was on hand to participate and explain this new approach which he states, "is a program that is designed to get closer to the needs of the people at city and county level. We in the National Office feel that we must redirect our efforts from planning only for a nuclear emergency and return to basic Emergency Operations Development. That is to say, we must return to a fundamental operating system that will permit us to react to a wider range of disasters, which beset us every day. I hope to learn from seeing some of your deliberations and some of your discussions of what your concerns are."

The conference consisted of discussions which were led by the various departments of the State Civil Defense Staff and Civil Defense Coordinators of all State Agencies who have plans for and can provide service during any type of emergency. This informal conference atmosphere prompted many meaningful questions from the conferees.

Also participating in the conference were Don Guier, Director, Mr. Gaines West, Director Field Operations and John Stalling, Field Representative for Arkansas, of Civil Defense Region Five with headquarters in Denton, Texas, of which Arkansas is a part.

Mr. Moore stated, "the conference has accomplished many purposes. We have become better acquainted with each other. You are now more aware of the services available to you from our State, Regional, and National Staffs and the many state agencies. It is my hope the national office will continue to support this type conference, so we can meet with the officials from the other counties throughout the state."

RULES OUT NUDITY
PORT MORESBY, New Guinea (AP) — President Suharto of Indonesia has ordered 500,000 naked tribal people to wear clothes by the end of 1972. The order was broadcast by the government's radio station in Djajapura, capital of West Irian where many tribes still live primitively in mountainous jungle country.

PAUL KLIPSCH

Rotarian Paul Klipsch, who has piloted his own plane since the 1950's, told the Hope Rotary Club about some of his interesting experiences as a pilot when the club met for its weekly luncheon Friday, October 1, at the Town and Country. His anecdotes included his personal bout with acrophobia (fear of height), his association with "George" (the automatic pilot), and recalling the loss of an engine near Mt. Hood.

Vice-President Bob Roberts had charge of the meeting, and before the program he introduced Henderson State College Defensive Coach (football) Fred Dawson, and a senior member of the Reddie team, Lyle Jones, Jr. Coach Dawson gave an up-to-date account of the athletic program at HSC and discussed the current football season.

Vietnamese Rush Against the North

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — An 800-man South Vietnamese task force launched another drive today eastward from the Cambodian town of Krok toward a fire-base that has been under repeated enemy shelling for nine days.

The task force, spearheaded by two armored units, pushed to within 1 1/2 miles of Fire Base Alpha near the Cambodia-South Vietnam border before it ran into enemy resistance.

Elsewhere, the South Vietnamese command in Saigon reported 92 enemy shelling and other attacks across South Vietnam in the 24 hours up to day-break today.

The surge in attacks, the most for a one-day period in a year and a half, apparently was timed to coincide with South Vietnam's presidential elections and disrupt the voting.

The South Vietnamese command said casualties in the shelling were light. The U.S.

Misunderstanding of Prisoners Brings Riot

NEW YORK (AP) — An inmate at Attica State Prison says that a guard's chance misunderstanding of the actions of two prisoners practicing football moves led directly to the bloody four-day rebellion, the New York Times reports.

Both the Times and the New York Daily News today published lengthy background accounts of the Attica uprising. Both accounts emphasized that confusion reigned before and during the assault that crushed the insurrection.

The News, in the first of a five-part series on the revolt, said there exists "no single objective record" of the events during the assault Sept. 13 when most of the 42 deaths at Attica occurred.

Both the Times and News told of prisoners, accused by their fellow inmates of not going along with the rebellion, being found with their throats cut.

The Times said its 10,000-word chronology of events leading up to and including the assault was pieced together from inmates, doctors, lawyers and legislators and from tapes, films, letters and notebooks.

The Times said the misunderstanding that sparked the rebellion occurred late Wednesday afternoon Sept. 8 as the prisoners gathered in the yard.

A white inmate, Ray Lamorie, said to be a coach of the prison football team, was demonstrating a lineman's moves and feints to a young black inmate, Leroy Dewer, the Times said.

At that moment, Lt. Richard Mulrooney, a prison guard, stepped into the yard and saw what he mistakenly assumed was a fight between the two, the Times said.

The paper quotes an unidentified inmate as saying that Mulrooney stepped up, put his hand on Dewer's shoulder and Dewer spun around and hit him in an apparent reflex action.

Lamorie defended Dewer, who was encircled by other inmates for protection, and the guards did not press a demand that he leave the yard, the Times said. But it added that two hours later the two inmates were summoned from their cells and rumors circulated that they had been beaten.

Figures State Guard Will Be Hurt

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Maj. Gen. Thomas M. Phillips, adjutant general of the Arkansas National Guard, says neither the end of the Vietnam war or an all-volunteer Army would hurt the guard in Arkansas.

There has been concern across the country that without the war and with the end of the draft the guard could no longer count on applications of men who seek to avoid serving in the war or to avoid being drafted.

"We will survive in good shape," Phillips said. "Get 'em a haircut and shave the burly beard and you will find a good Arkansas boy who is proud to serve his state," he said.

HOPE (ARK.) STAR, Printed by Offset

Command reported three shelling against American units and said they caused no casualties or damage.

Fire Base Alpha is five miles east of Krok, a rubber plantation town along Highway 7 in eastern Cambodia which is garrisoned by South Vietnamese and Cambodian forces.

North Vietnamese gunners hit the base earlier in the day with 100 rounds of mortar and rocket fire, the Saigon command reported. It described casualties as "very light" and field reports said only that one man was wounded and none killed among the defenders. Several other bases were shelled lightly in the Krok area and to the south on the Vietnam side of the border. The latter included U.S. artillery base Pace, which is almost directly on the border. It has been under intermittent shelling for the past nine days.

Twice before in the past week, South Vietnamese task forces have attempted to reach Fire Base Alpha and relieve the garrison only to be stopped en route by North Vietnamese units.

The South Vietnamese command said an aerial observer Sunday spotted the bodies of 31 enemy soldiers killed by earlier air strikes in the Krok area. The observer also reported 97 enemy bunkers destroyed by strikes 10 miles southwest of Krok.

The Krok region has been under heavy bombing by U.S. B52 bombers and smaller tactical fighter-bombers for the past week and a half.

The U.S. Command reported one more B52 raid in the border region today as well as B52 strikes in eastern Cambodia at North Vietnamese rear bases.

Identity of Kidnaper Sought

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill. (AP)

Police sought positive identification today of a man being held in connection with the shooting death of an elderly Edwardsville man who was with his family was held hostage in his home for three hours Sunday.

The man, tentatively identified as Arvin Homer Logan, 36,

Monday, October 4, 1971 of Shirley, Ark., also faced federal kidnapping charges, police said. He was being held in Madison County Jail in Edwardsville. Logan allegedly forced Steve Nuss, a car salesman, to drive him from Farmington, Mo., to Edwardsville where he held a family of five hostage in their rural home for three hours, police said.

He was accused of shooting Louis Schildmeier, 84, and fleeing in Nuss' car, police said.
